

Eclectic Music Selections for the Pandemic Age (may it be brief!)

I started doing my COVID-19 newsletter on March 23 and decided to add a daily music selection to help add some levity to what has been a serious situation. The only criteria is the selections had to be video performances and available on YouTube. The range of music is quite eclectic and governed only by my own good/bad taste. You won't find disco but you will find Taylor Swift and Frank Zappa. Lots of good classical and some longer pieces for reflection. If you just want to take your mind off of things, feel free to click on the links in this email for an aural and visual treat. I've seen a number of the performers in live performance. Occasionally a link is taken down by YouTube; if you find one that is send me an email so I can find an alternative.

We are entering our third week of closures here in Maryland and last night we helped one of our local restaurants by ordering in with delivery from one of the Internet food delivery apps. This is nice way to help keep your local restaurants running in this time of closure.

To help take your mind of SARS-CoV-2, here is a YouTube performance of Wagner's Tannhauser overture as transcribed by Franz Liszt. Melodic and devilishly difficult to play well:

Welcome to a new week. Thus far the hospital case load here in Maryland has been manageable but reported cases of SARS-CoV-2 continue to increase. Some good work out of China looking at serological testing.

For the musical selection, here is a cute, short, video of how opera during a pandemic might be staged. The two singers are voice professors from Augustana College and even the notable Dr. Fauci has a role:

Lots of pre-prints today; I guess there was a lot of work being done over the weekend. I've been posting some music links that have inspired me. One of the pieces that I find most spiritual is the Chaconne from Bach's second partita for unaccompanied violin. Here is a nice rendition by the Bulgarian/American violinist, Bella Hristova, filmed at the Curtis Institute:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XkfsGClIHb4>

2020-04-02

Today's musical selection is indie rocker Grace Potter who pays a visit to Darryl Hall's house (this was a wonderful show that ran for five years where Hall invited singers of all genres to come to his home studio and play). The song is Low Road, one that I've always enjoyed: <https://youtu.be/jt5rKGsMKyM>

2020-04-03

Today's music selection is one of the great country songs that goes back to the Appalachian hill country. Though it started off as a church hymn, the words were reworked and A.P. Carter reworked the words so that it was funereal in nature. Despite the somber nature, it can be uplifting to listen to. Here is a video of the second all-star recording by the Nitty Gritty Dirt Band:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7bRjLkNqNXI> The first version was featured in Ken Burns's Country Music documentary that was aired on PBS last fall and featured one of the original vocalists, Mother Maybelle Carter.

2020-04-04

The musical choice for today is the beautiful tenor/baritone duet from Bizet's Pearl Fishers: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yfvjWD4GGck> The setting is unusual and would be frowned upon right now. This is my favorite duet and one that I've sung several times with baritone colleagues.

2020-04-05

For today's musical selection, I've moved over to the pop world. I am a closeted Taylor Swift fan so we have the great music video (great for the depiction of girl power) 'Bad Blood' -

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Qcly9NiNbmo> There is a cameo VIP appearance by someone whose marriage I may or may not have broken up about 25 years ago (that's a story for another day).

2020-04-06

The music selection for today is a lengthy one, Mahler's 8th symphony. I've seen this performed live on three occasions and always find it incredibly spiritual. This telecast is from the Amsterdam Concertgebouw, recorded last year: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nxf3xtH31jA> Spectacular and wonderful singing from the soloists.

2020-04-07

For today's musical selection, a delightful performance of Beethoven's Piano Concerto #5 by the young Spanish pianist, Rosalia Gomez Lasheras: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=q-hn8WH\_-3U I came across this one yesterday when I was reading abstracts. Just fine, precision pianism.

2020-04-08

NO, NO, NO, I am not going to post any disco tunes!!! Don't wait for The Village People. However, here is ABBA singing for the Royal Family the night before the wedding of their son/daughter (I can't remember). Dancing Queen is one of my faves from that long last era: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XN9lgrT8eVc> (there will be no Elton John or Neil Diamond so don't hold your breath).

2020-04-09

Let's take another trip down Country lane. One of the finest singer/songwriters of our time is Kris Kristofferson (did you know he was both a Rhodes Scholar and an Army captain who passed ranger training?). His songs have been covered by singers of all genres. Here is 'Me and Bobby McGee' with Kris and Sheryl Crow: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UKJ-49RbjA>

2020-04-10

Today's music selection is a nice video performance of Schumann's Dichterliebe by the German soprano, Christine Schäfer: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=L8d-d\_-IF3k She is a wonderful artist, and gave the most stirring rendition of Schubert's Winterreise that I have ever seen in a live performance. I know Dichterliebe quite well having performed it in recital but this erotically charged version is well worth watching.

2020-04-11

One of the loyal readers request some Bach. Here goes and it's not what you expected, a nice (?) excerpt of the double concerto for two violins: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EofKXc-EOo&t=302s> Don't give up on it too early as there is some fine playing.

2020-04-12

A lot of years ago I got my start in choral singing at All Souls Episcopal Church in San Diego. One of my good friends invited me to join the youth choir. I asked my mother about this as a good Jewish son ought to do. She said it was fine but at some point they will pass crackers around. "You don't want to take one," she admonished. I was with the choir for about four years singing at all kinds of services. Easter morning we always performed Handel's Hallelujah chorus from The Messiah. Here is a wonderful version for these pandemic times: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PQYVbd1Gwg> This was some feat and quite stirring.

2020-04-13

It's chamber music for Monday! Here is the Beaux Arts Trio playing Schubert's sublime trio in e flat: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6v8omgNS4lw> I have a great fondness for this group as they premiered their tour recital for free at Indiana University every year when I was in grad school. The pianist, Menachem Pressler, is still on the faculty at the school of music at the young age of 97! I remember when the IU opera house opened in 1973. The hall was consecrated with a performance of Beethoven's 9th symphony. It was open seating and I ended up sitting right next to Professor Pressler who enjoyed the performance just as much as I did. Trivia moment for you filmophiles: the slow movement was prominently featured in Stanley Kubrick's mediocre (IMO) film 'Barry Lyndon.' Kubrick made another mistake in picking a piece of music written almost 100 years after the time period of the film. [note: see what kind of good stuff you get to read and listen to from this newsletter!]

2020-04-14

There are some pieces of music that upon first hearing, remain indelibly in one's mind. So it was when Stan Getz and Joao Gilberto released their album of Bossa Nova music in 1964. The main track, 'The Girl from Ipanema,' was a major hit on the radio but it was the 'B' side of the 45 release, 'Corcovado,' that I liked and continue to enjoy today. The album made a star of Astrud Gilberto, then Joao's wife, who was and remained a singer with a whispery naïve voice. I learned the Portuguese words and it was my favorite lullaby that helped get both my daughters to sleep. Here is a nice version from the Brazilian singer, Gal Costa: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ReE4jDvJVLw>

2020-04-15

It's always fun when you find a piece of music that is new and doubly fun when it's a chamber music piece with stings and wind instruments. Here is Dutch violinist Janine Janssen and friends with the Beethoven Septet in E major: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LQ5vciYlfk8> I sent the link on to my bassoonist daughter who is a music therapist at UCSF's Children's Hospital. Here response back, "OMG, I played this piece in a small chamber group several years ago and it was a wonderful experience." Unfortunately, no recording of that performance is available.

It difficult to grasp how international air travel has all but collapsed. A couple of years ago my wife and I visited the Basque region of Spain. We flew to Barcelona where we had vacationed some years before and took a short flight on to Bilbao. On the plane were members of the Joan Chamorro Quintet and their lead singer and trumpeter Andrea Motis. I ended up sitting next to guitarist, Josep Traver, and we spent the hour talking about jazz music. I had not heard of the group. He said they had a lot of stuff up on YouTube and that they would be performing in Bilbao over the weekend. Unfortunately, we were spending that time in San Sebastian so I wasn't able to see them live. Here is a nice cover of 'Someday my Prince will Come' featuring Ms. Motis (she was 18 at the time):

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3qu52nXuEZ0> [contest warning!!! This one is easy and I want to give away a prize. First person to tell me the origin of the song without using Google wins a prize related to the Quintet!] Since it's Friday and everyone is worn out from a hard week of sheltering in place, here is a special COVID-19 performance from Anne-Sophie Mutter (I'm still looking for the pianist): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DCY7XaBqWMI>

A couple of things before we get started this Friday. As one perceptive reader noted, I got the days mixed up in yesterday's newsletter. Yes, it was Thursday!! In the absence of sports scores, I am having difficulty staying oriented (or maybe it's just 'Groundhog Day' syndrome; we need an ICD code for this). Second, and more importantly, we had a winner in yesterday's contest. The song, 'Someday my Prince Will Come,' is from Walt Disney's 'Snow White,' the first of Disney's full-length animated films. Music was by Frank Churchill, lyrics by Larry Morey, and Adriana Caselotti sang it in the film. The prize will be going out in today's mail to the lucky winner. Don't lose your thinking caps as quizzes will pop up periodically.

Before we get into the musical selection today (these are programmed way in advance!), let's take a moment and remember saxophone great Lee Konitz who passed away from SARS-CoV-2 complications. Konitz was 92 and had a storied career playing with almost every jazz great since starting in the 1940s. Here is a live version of All the Things You Are: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0AnM3bTEXGk> from 2012 (Mr. Konitz was 85).

On to the main selection. Those of us old enough to remember what 'camp' really meant will derive some pleasure from this piece. Those of you wanting an explanation are referred to the greatest reference 'book' of our time: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Camp\_\(style\)) We have not featured Broadway, so it's time to dim the lights and strike up the band. Here is 'Tonight' from 'West Side Story.' The audience was enthralled with the performance, me not so much: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QC10LrVWtu4> Trivia question (no prizes for this one): who sang Tony, incurring the great wrath of Leonard Bernstein?

Here's the music choice for today. She sure didn't make a convincing Maria but just maybe La Netrebko is better suited for German operetta. From an earlier stage in her career (I think it's at the Baden-Baden gala): https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7tUq8Q\_b8Lg

2020-04-19

Contest Alert!!!!!! Today's music selection is one that I often come back to, a performance of the Country classic 'Wabash Cannonbal;' it is a group of all-star singers and musicians, some contemporary and some from years past: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=z7eTelcaf\_M The song is introduced by two old clips by the legendary Roy Acuff before the scrim comes up and Ketch Secor of Old Crow Medicine Show starts the second verse. Ketch introduces the instrumental soloists, but the second vocal soloist is not named. To win the prize, your task is to identify the wonderful baritone who sings the Daddy Claxton verse. Hey, let's also add a Sunday morning bonus!!! Of course you guessed it, 'Sunday Morning Coming Down' from Kris Kristofferson's debut album: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vbqGWTxwZEA> [note: I certainly do not endorse cigarette smoking!]

2020-04-20

Alas, there was no winner of yesterday's prize question. It was a tough one if you are not a big CM fan. The singer was Josh Turner who is also well known for his gospel singing. Here is a fun one for these COVID times, 'Why Don't We Just Dance': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IH1Z9DEDqpk> Let's move on music fans, why haven't you asked for the 'Chairman of the Board?' What a big gaffe on my part not to have posted a Sinatra song. His young recordings were outstanding, he had the rhythm and technique to really style a song. Here is some good singing from the mid-1960s. Big band and Sinatra in 'Fly me to the Moon:' <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0YEtYHZXI5M>

2020-04-21

I just realized we have not heard anything by Richard Strauss. Let's remedy this right now with a fine rendition of his final composition, The Four Last Songs. IMO, Lucia Popp was one of the most underrated sopranos who sadly departed this world way too early. Here is a wonderful rendition with the Chicago Symphony and Georg Solti: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FhXLq3d\_6kU 20 minutes of exquisite singing.

2020-04-22

I am fond of piano transcriptions of operas. Franz Liszt was the first one to do this, and regularly toured Europe playing virtuoso pieces. Here is a nice arrangement of Wagner's Götterdämmerung by pianist Nikolay Lugansky: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RvbUnf-Fygc>

2020-04-23

Yes, it is a little late for Easter but I came across this new video of The Messiah (I've sung this several time as a chorister and even learned the opening tenor solo!). It's always stirring to hear this sung well and this fits the bill: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IFjQ77ol2DI> I found it interesting that they split the opening solo between two tenors. I really liked 'Every Valley', great tone and breath control. This is the first video I've seen that has a fundraising link (I enjoyed the performance so much I donated).

We should remember that lots of musicians rely on public performances for income. The pandemic has taken this away. I ask my loyal readers to give back to arts communities as appropriate (hey, you are getting a great newsletter for free!). As a double treat today, here is a delightful COVID-19 kitchen recital by German-Slav soprano Patricia Janečková singing a devilishly difficult Rossini song: <https://youtu.be/Xy4bFpaGnII> She's only 21 and there are a number of wonderful YouTube clips of her singing.

You were all thinking what's up with this Goldhammer guy. He gives us indie rock, pop rock, and even country music. Where is Vladimir Horowitz? Why these dumb opera transcriptions, surely there must be a fine concert performance of the great Horowitz. Not to worry, of course there is Horowitz and here he is in a 1987 Vienna concert: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8ELwCdgGQLQ> Here's a nice anecdote. My wife's college roommate lived across the street from him in New York. She always knew when he was about to give a concert at the piano movers were on the street to hoist his piano out and move it to Carnegie Hall. I don't know if he had it shipped over for the Vienna concert. He was 84 years old at the time of this concert that was his next to last public performance.

2020-04-25

You knew that he had to make an appearance. Yes, I was present at the famous May 1970 performance of the LA Philharmonic and Frank Zappa's Mothers of Invention. It was memorable in all kinds of ways that would take too long to explain. Zappa was an iconoclastic musician and composer and there are a number classical groups who continue performing chamber music he wrote. I told you my taste in music is very eclectic. Here is the classic Montana: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DmcYTShN4Fk> and here is one of his finer chamber pieces 'G-Spot Tornado' with accompanying dancers; it was the last time he conducted, passing away nine months after this performance at the age of 52. [Contest Alert!!!! What was the name of the leader of the do-wop band inspired by Frank Zappa?? This is a tough one but a nice prize will go to the winner!]

2020-04-26

We absolutely have to stay with pop music for today's selection. I have been a fan of Aretha Franklin since she hit the charts big time in the 1960s. There are so many good selections but I return to 'Think' which for me made The Blues Brothers an iconic film: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WY66eICQkYk>

2020-04-27

I promise no more Frank Zappa! BTW, nobody responded to the contest question regarding Zappa's relation to the do-wop band. He and his colleagues released an album called 'Cruising with Reuben and the Jets,' consisting of do-wop songs, which received some mainstream radio play. The band leader, Reuben Sano, was the alter ego of Frank Zappa. You can find the album on YouTube.

I continue to look for inspiration in music during the pandemic and often return to Mahler. Today I offer a fine performance of the Symphony No. 2: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0-CdYvJ6t4> I look past the religiosity of the choral verses and rather focus on the longing for relief. There is a good entry on Wikipedia discussing this symphony.

Here is another fine piece of chamber music by Franz Schubert, the octet in F major, for strings, horn, bassoon & clarinet: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fnpVu8Eihj4> I'm constantly amazed at Schubert's musical output during his short life. By my count, I have sung maybe 35 or so of his lieder and have been working on and off on Winterreise. That recital is likely not to take place but as soon as things clear up, I'm planning on doing the Schumann Op. 39 songs (Eichendorff poems) with maybe Beethoven's An die ferne Geliebte. If it's safe for travel all my loyal readers will get an invite.

2020-04-29

Stephen Sondheim turned 90 in March and a 90th birthday celebration was held and it's worth watching just for the simple pleasure of seeing so many wonderful singers performing in the COVID-19 era. For a shorter enjoyment of Sondheim here is Neil Patrick Harris singing "Being Alive" from Company: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HnTu8IBWvTQ>

2020-04-30

How have I ignored Chuck Berry??? I need to correct this STAT! Here is Chuck, live at the Roxy, singing Memphis: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=B7fyNnoZ7IA> It's an understated performance compared to those of his younger days but arresting nonetheless. Contest Alert: first person to correctly provide the answer as to the classical composer featured in one of Chuck's greatest hits will win a nice prize! Hint: the song was covered by a number of well-known bands including Paul Shaffer and The World's Most Dangerous Band (this should really help you solve this one).

2020-05-01

Happy May Day!!!

Let's move on to one of the great instrumentalists of our time. Yes, dear readers, it is time to listen to Ravi Shankar live from the 1967 Monterey Pop festival (and before you ask, I was not there, nor was I at Woodstock either; in those days jazz was my thing): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lk600bnblOk> Speaking of Monterey, it is a shame that I cannot find a video anywhere of John Handy's 1965 Jazz Festival performance. I wore out my LP playing 'Spanish Lady' so much. If you are interested, the full recording is on YouTube and is one of the great jazz festival performances IMO.

We had a winner of yesterday's contest!!! The correct answer was Ludwig von Beethoven and the Chuck Berry song was 'Roll over Beethoven.' While Paul Shaffer's band did cover this song, The Beatles version is the most famous.

Lots of popular songs get taken up by jazz musicians who give them a special twist. I presented one example, 'Someday my Prince Will Come,' which came from a very popular movie. Sometimes, the song comes from a movie that is all but forgotten today. This is the case with 'Green Dolphin Street' from the film of the same name. Lyricist Ned Washington was best known for 'When You Wish Upon a Star' from Pinocchio. It was one of MGM's hits in 1947-48; it occasionally pops up on Turner Classic Movies (I have to stay on the lookout for this one). Here is the great John Coltrane with the sidemen who played with the Miles Davis Quintet. For some reason Miles, who was first to record this song, sat out this Düsseldorf performance: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ePScREIDHOY>

2020-05-03

Sunday is spiritual music day! Here is a very fine performance of Brahms A German Requiem : https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=A-1SishN\_bc Despite taking the text from the scriptures, Brahms made this work non-liturgical and focused on humanism.

2020-05-04

I first heard Keith Jarrett when he played with Charles Lloyd at the Monterrey Jazz festival in 1966 (I was there!!). I thought he was a very special pianist and was not proven wrong. He went on to play a number solo concerts, the most famous of which was in Cologne Germany where they forgot to bring the correct piano in. Jarrett adapted and that evening's recording became one of the bestselling in jazz history. Here is Jarrett in Tokyo with some encores of popular songs:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Eqr0ZmgmDr4> There is a good podcast by Tim Harford about the Cologne recording. You cannot say I am not keeping you all entertained with all types of arcana.

2020-05-05

Did I miss posting a music video of our Nobel Laureate poet of the people? Yes, none other than the iconic Bob Dylan!! Before you ask, I was indeed at one of the 1974 performances of Bob and The Band, a truly memorable evening in a packed Assembly Hall at Indiana University (IIRC, it was about 2-3 weeks after I saw Luciano Pavarotti in recital, what a pair of artists). Here is a youthful Dylan on Canadian TV: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IJCmgKRszYM> Also, Dylan's Nobel Prize acceptance speech is well worth listening to. I finally understand Moby Dick now. It's time for another contest!!!! Who is the mysterious girl he is singing about? She might have even been on an album cover! I really want to give away prizes!

Alas, there was no winner of yesterday's contest. There is no unanimity of thinking about who 'girl of the north country' is, and of course Bob Dylan isn't talking. The song was on Dylan's second album, "The Freewheelin' Bob Dylan" and also on "Nashville Skyline" where he sings it as a duet with Johnny Cash. Most people believe it is Suze Rotolo who is on the iconic album cover with Dylan. If you are looking for a good book to read about Dylan and his time in New York, I can give a major recommendation for David Hajdu's "Positively 4th Street: The Lives and Times of Joan Baez, Bob Dylan, Mimi Baez Fariña, and Richard Fariña." Trivia note: Richard Fariña was a good friend and Cornell classmate of the reclusive American writer, Thomas Pynchon.

Here is a vivid memory of my almost misspent youth. Loyal readers had no way of knowing that your correspondent was a beach bum at one point. Anyone who goes to school at UC Santa Barbara had the beach in his/her system (do click on the link to see some wonderful panoramic photography of my alma mater). When the Beach Boys hit the scene we were all stoked up and ready to hit the waves!!! It was so rad!! Here is the iconic Surfin USA (co-written by none other than Chuck Berry): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sNypbmPPDco> yes, the video is grainy and audio cloudy but all the other filmed versions are lip synch and we cannot have that!

This has to be one of the best classical-pop fusion songs. The great Freddie Mercury and Montserrat Caballe singing Barcelona: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pPG5DP2RQZk> it doesn't get any better than this!! Caballe sang one of the most magnificent 'Casta Diva' that I've seen. It was a windswept evening at an open-air performance in France and the voice is just in prime shape. The YouTube clip is nowhere as good as the DVD. I'll look for a good clip of Queen's 'We are the Champions.'

2020-05-08

I came upon the Swiss soprano, Regula Mühlemann, pretty much by mistake the other day. What a wonderful singer she is. Here she sings Mozart's Exsultate Jubilate: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=o\_fA-Ls4RXk I am constant surprised by Mozart's compositions.

2020-05-09

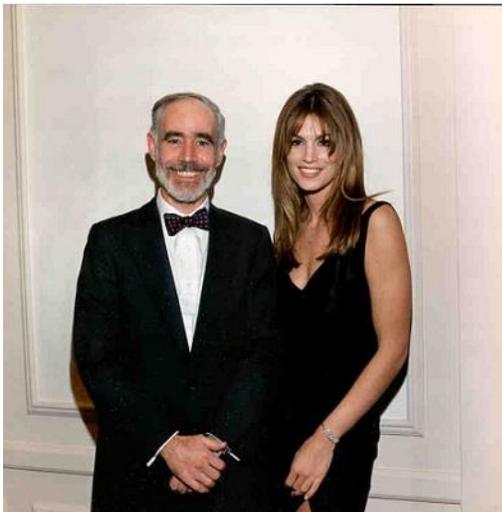

It occurs to me that we need to have a string quartet performance to fill out the chamber music repertoire! One of my favorites is Schubert's Quartet #14 D.810 aka "Death and the Maiden." Here is the fine Hagen Quartet in performance: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ovEYC-mFjvU>

2020-05-10

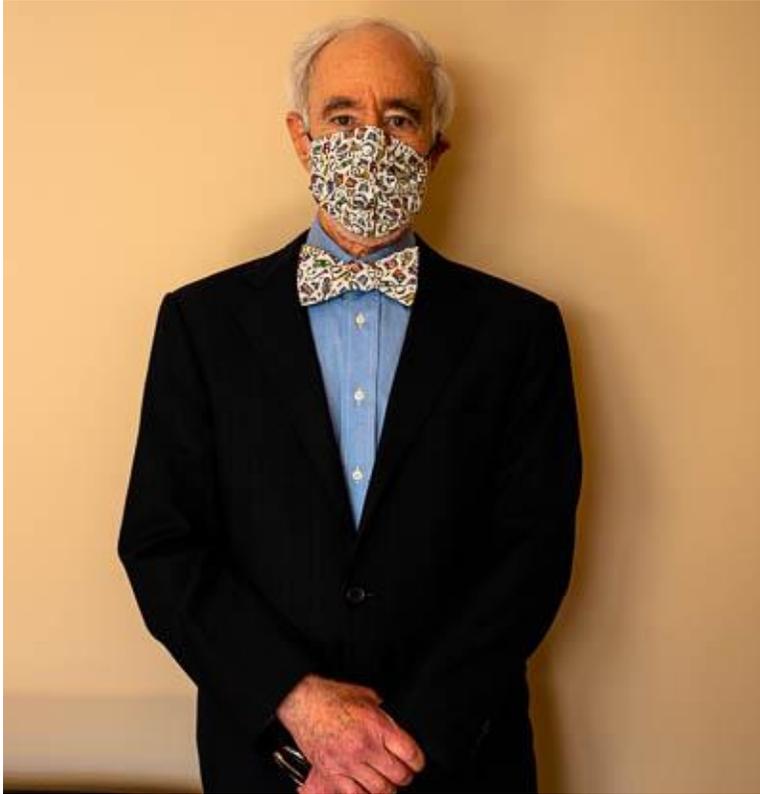

To all the mothers, Happy Mother's Day!!!!

Sunday is usually a day of reflection and what better way than with this Verdi Requiem: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Nlq9IJREIBk&t=11s>

Dearest readers, I have a special treat for all of you. Most of you don't know that at one time in the long ago past, I did a stint as an Armani model. Yes, it is true and here is me and a certain super-model just off the runway.

I was thinking to myself there has to also be a way to revive my modeling career. What better way than to dress for success the COVID-19 way!!! With the help of my wonderful bowtie supplier, I now present business dress for the COVID-19 ERA!!

For you fashionistas, I was also featured in the Washington Post way back in 2005. I did get my famous tag line in the interview, "I'm a slave to fashion; we all must have standards!" Eat your heart out Tim Gunn. Unfortunately, my picture didn't make the front page they deferred to Mac Dunaway; it's hard to compete with the likes of Faye's brother! Enough fashion talk, on with the main business of the day. Wait, let's run a contest! First person to correctly identify my partner in the Armani picture wins a prize! This one should be easy.

2020-05-11

I never tire of Schubert. Here is one of his better known songs, 'The Shepherd on the Rock' written for soprano, piano and clarinet. Barbara Bonney does a wonderful job accompanied by Andre Watts and David Shifrin: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KEjBGYLohto>

2020-05-12

Last week (I think it was, but since the days are a blur, I cannot be certain) I had Schubert's 'Death and the Maiden' string quartet. One of the movements of that is a paraphrase of the song by the same name. Here are Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau and his wife, Julia Varady performing the song: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DgvM0g4fGBE> Fischer-Dieskau is of course well known for the numerous lieder recordings and here he is a more than decent pianist.

Franz Liszt wrote three songs to poems of Petrarch (Liszt was the rock star of his generation as those who have had the good fortune to have seen Ken Russell's art house classic, 'Lisztomania' starring Who bandmember Roger Daltrey as the composer). Here is the fine American tenor Lawrence Brownlee singing Sonnet 104, 'Pace non trovo': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=c8ii2cUAje0>

Henri Duparc only wrote 17 songs but each one was masterful in composition and expression. One of my favorites is Phydilé sung here by Sylvia McNair: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0Sec4GzrZ9U>

2020-05-15

I love opera duets!!! One of my faves is the Flower Duet from Leo Delibes's opera Lakme. Here is a nice version from the recording studio with Sabine Devieille and Marianne Cregassa:

No introduction about today's music selection, just the name – Ella Fitzgerald:

For reflection Sunday, one of the masterpieces of Western Music. To me Bach is the embodiment of spirituality. Looking at his vast output, there had to be something more than musical genius and his B minor Mass is a piece I can listen to over and over. Here is a French group, Ensemble Pygmalion, playing on period instruments with a great choir and soloists:

Week nine of the newsletter; time flies when you are having fun (or at least it supposed to).

How have I managed to neglect the blues??? I did have Aretha in her Blues Brother's cameo but that didn't count. We need to take care of business right now. Who else to kick off a 'Blue Monday' than BB King. Here is 'The Thrill is Gone': https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SgXSomPE\_FY Nobody does it better.

Let's stay with the blues for at least another day. Another movie that featured an out of character blues number is 'Adventures in Babysitting' (which all my loyal readers should have watched more than once) where Elisabeth Shue and the three kids she is babysitting find themselves in a Chicago blues club. The only way out is....yes, they gotta sing the blues: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=552PLnE61TM> 'Babysitting Blues' with the great Albert King on guitar and back up vocals. Time for another contest!!! Which actor who gained notoriety playing an intense procedural detective in a Dick Wolf produced series plays the Thor-like character in this movie? First correct answer wins a nice prize!

2020-05-20

Let's shift gears and move on to some folk music. Here is a very young Joni Mitchell from England. Her voice was youthful and lyrical. Two of her well known songs of the day, 'Big Yellow Taxi' and my fave 'Both Sides Now': https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GFB-d-8\_bvY Alas, nobody got the quiz answer yesterday. Vincent d'Onofrio played the garage worker in the movie who the little girl thinks is Thor; he was an intense Detective Goren in 'Law and Order: Criminal Intent.' Better luck in the next contest; I have nice prizes I really want to give away to my loyal readers!!!

2020-05-21

Let's stay with folk for another day. Two for the price of one! The lilting voice of Joan Baez is featured. First we have a live 1978 performance of 'the Night they Drove Old Dixie Down' from Norway: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XTNirVqTepE> the second one is a song that I have always enjoyed, Leonard Cohen's 'Suzanne,' <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=39eFrEzZmYE> from a French performance in 2000. Don't forget my book recommendation from earlier, David Hajdu's "Positively 4th Street: The Lives and Times of Joan Baez, Bob Dylan, Mimi Baez Fariña, and Richard Fariña."

2020-05-22

I cannot think of any vocal quartet that puts a smile on my face as the Manhattan Transfer. The arrangements and blend in voices is just sublime. Here is 'Boy from New York City': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=k2fN36wq-zc>

2020-05-23

I read a fascinating article on the Russo-German pianist Igor Levit in The New Yorker. He started doing house recitals over Twitter right after the lock down was imposed in Germany (he lives in the Mitte section of Berlin; I had my eyes on a very nice flat in that area following a visit to Berlin several years ago but it wasn't that amenable as a weekend getaway). He was invited to do a reprise of one of the concerts at the President's house, Schloss Bellevue. Here is Beethoven's Waldstein Sonata: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IC8DBTfJI90&t=7s> (don't be alarmed by the drop out in the first movement, it's a glitch in the recording) and a double treat, his NPR Tiny Desk Concert: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HSyJNWYRZ8Y>

2020-05-24

For reflection Sunday, let's add a bit of optimism. What better and uplifting way to move our spirits than the Beethoven 9th Symphony. We turn to the Frankfurt Radio Symphony under the baton of Andrés Orozco-Estrada. I really like how he only modestly accepts the audience applause, preferring to acknowledge all the ensemble members and soloists: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gT91esZK90I> Collectively, we are all brothers and sisters and we will get through this!

2020-05-25

Back in the day, The Righteous Brothers were chart toppers. One of the major hits was Unchained Melody which was also used in the movie Ghost with Demi Moore and Patrick Swayze (who can ever forget that movie?). Here is a video clip of Bobby Hatfield from 1965: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IYj2hex99gY> The song has an interesting origin and now it is time for another CONTEST. A nice prize will go to the first person to correctly identify the first person to sing the song and what that person was really famous for!!! This was one of my best bar bets of all time and I never found anyone who could provide the correct answer. I will give you a couple of hints. It was not Bobby Hatfield nor was it Elvis (who did a decent job with it). Put your thinking caps on!!!

Here is a super special musical treat for you all: https://youtu.be/ Y3iT\_o67M The pop star JoJo makes a surprise visit to a Zoom group of Healthcare Heroes led by one of the music therapists at UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital, none other than the great Jenny Goldhammer!!!

2020-05-26

The correct answer to yesterday's contest is the great American baritone, Todd Duncan. He was famous as the first Porgy in the Gershwin opera Porgy and Bess. He was a long-time voice teacher in Washington DC. Here is a nice article on 'Unchained Melody and a clip of famous singers who covered the song (including Elvis).

I am always on the lookout for COVID-19 special music videos. Here is a fun one from opera stars Jamie Barton and Ryan McKinny, accompanied by Kathleen Kelly, entitled Coronadämmerung from Wagner's Das Rheingold: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=n\_ChqaZxLT4

2020-05-27

One can always listen to Bach and not be disappointed (even when Jack Benny is trying to play the double concerto with Isaac Stern. Here is a good rendition of two violin concertos in a very intimate space with Hillary Hahn: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nGwDSNEikFw> There is a bonus piece by Piazzolla for violin and accordion.

2020-05-28

OK opera fans, we have had some arias, piano transcriptions, duets, but why not a full opera you might ask. Asked and answered is my reply. The Rome Opera is putting some very nice productions on line to view for FREE (just like this newsletter!!). Here is video recorded back in 2015. Some fine singing and great scenery: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=h746rBi1Hdw> Remember to read your newsletter before settling in to watch Floria Tosca do her thing.

Stan Getz and Chet Baker were true icons in the jazz world. Both were intensely melodic musicians and both were seduced into heroin use and addiction. Getz successfully kicked the habit, Baker did not. Here is a fine performance of the two from a 1983 Stockholm performance: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0p72L4bMdPA>

2020-05-30

Here is another COVID-19 performance from a group that is new to me. The quartet NOVA is minimalist with a guitarist, bass player, drummer and vocalist. Here is a nice split screen performance of one of my faves, Corcovado: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wI6NVR88kgQ> I want to hear more from this group!

2020-05-31

For reflection Sunday let us turn to Beethoven for the second week in a row. This time have a listen to the delightful Symphony #6, The Pastorale. As with last week, it is the Frankfurt Radio Symphony under the direction of Andrés Orozco-Estrada: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Zv4PIFRpYcw&t=250s>

2020-06-01

Happy June and welcome to Week 11 of the newsletter!!

Let's spend some time on soul music and for me there was nobody like Sam Cooke. The tragedy of his early death was never adequately explained and remains controversial to this day. Unfortunately, his best composition 'A Change is Gonna Come' was never performed on video that I could find so we have to settle for a short appearance on the old Jerry Lewis show:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eltCoCoR2Yg> There is a very funny back story about 'A Change is Gonna Come' on a Drunk History episode and here is the original Sam Cooke recording that always melts my heart: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wEBlaMOmKV4> The film clips accompanying this video are apt for reflection today!

2020-06-02

Let's turn to another wonderful soul tune today, composed and first sung by Otis Redding, Sitting on the Dock of the Bay. This was one of the last pieces Redding composed as he died in an airplane crash shortly after this was recorded and there is no video performance available. However, the American singer/songwriter Sara Bareilles provides a soulful cover for us:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=DTvnL1jWNao> Redding's original recording is here:

How about Oakland's finest: The Pointer Sisters? Jump for My Love:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uyTVyCp7xrw> I was attracted to this MTV video when it first came out. All the track and field athletes engaged in various jumping and hurdling activities and then ..... you can watch for yourself. Time to run another contest to see if I can give away a prize!!! First one to correctly identify the player who has the flying slam dunk will be the winner! I can't think of an easier question to ask about this video (I do know half the track and field athletes but those would be too obscure).

2020-06-04

A while back I said NO Disco, NO way, NO how. Does singing a Disco classic at the Nobel Peace Prize Concert honoring President Obama count as Disco? NO way, NO how. Here is the estimable Donna Summer singing her great hit 'Last Dance:' <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rFWbjz02OCQ>

My goodness, none of my loyal YouTube music aficionados got the answer to yesterday's contest. I know for a fact that one of my readers is a diehard NBA fan; perhaps he doesn't like The Pointer Sisters. Of course, it was the great Julius 'Dr. J' Erving whose slam dunks for the Philadelphia 76ers were legendary. Prizes are still out there to be won!!!

2020-06-05

Back on April 16, I provided a music selection from the Joan Chamorro Quintet. Chamorro is a phenomenal music teacher and his Sant Andreu Jazz Band is one phenomenal orchestra made up of kids between ages of 7 and 20. You can queue up any one of the groups performances or play lists and just smile the time away. The vocalists are always female, much as they were in the big band era here in the US. Here is a fine performance of ‘Lover Come Back to Me’ with drummer Abril Sauri singing: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=T9\_x09c-Xd8 Enjoy!

2020-06-06

Why haven't we had any comedy songs? One of my alert readers posed this exact question yesterday and I will remedy this oversight right now. Tom Lehrer is still with us at age 92, though he retired from performing many years ago. He also claims to have invented the Jell-O Shot while in the army. Here is 'We Will all Go Together When We Go' that refers back to the Cold War Days when we all had to do ‘duck and cover’ drills in school for fear of the nuclear apocalypse which, although I cannot be 100% certain, has not yet occurred: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=frAEmhqdlFs>

2020-06-07

For reflection Sunday I will turn again to Mahler for what is one of my favorite symphonic pieces ‘Das Lied von der Erde.’ I always find something new in this piece and have maybe 10 recordings. Perhaps the best interpretation is Bruno Walter's 1952 recording with Kathleen Ferrier and Julius Patzak. I don't think anyone has sung the final song as well as Ferrier who died of cancer at the young age of 41 about one year after the recording was made. Walter conducted the premier of the piece in 1909. For a video performance, here is the Toronto Symphony under the direction of Peter Oundjian with soloists, Michael Schade and Susan Platts: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=R81yPON9IHl>

2020-06-08

Welcome to Week 12 of the COVID-19 Journey

How have I forgotten ballet?? Music and dance go together like a hand and glove. Here is the New York City Ballet in George Balanchine's 'Rubies' with music by Igor Stravinsky: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=gw74CUCeqoM> enjoy the aural and visual pleasure.

2020-06-09

Why should one move a Steinway concert grand to the middle of the woods? Silly question, it is to hear the wonderful French-Georgian pianist, Khatia Buniastishvili, play some wonderful solo pieces. I've been listening to a lot of her concerti over YouTube and she has both the technique and feeling for this instrument. Here is Das Waldkonzert: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eYlIk19CbBI> Spectacular setting, wonderful playing and an appreciative audience.

2020-06-10

One thing that is great about YouTube are the interesting places that concerts are staged. We saw a woody setting yesterday. Today it's a pop up lunch room opera: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JNgCM7zp30M> The kid's expressions are priceless!

2020-06-11

One of my loyal readers wants to hear and see the wonderful Chinese pianist Yuja Wang. Ms. Wang got her early training in China before moving to the US and studying at the Curtis Institute in Philadelphia. As I am always happy to accept recommendations from my readers, here is Yuja Wang performing Rachmaninoff 3rd piano concerto with fingers flying over the keyboard. She is accompanied by the Vienna Philharmonic under the direction of Andrés Orozco-Estrada (it also has the Dvorak 'New World Symphony' as a bonus): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JKdpEvzKoj4>

2020-06-12

My bassoonist daughter, Jenny, and I saw the Imani Winds about a decade ago when they were in residence at the University of Maryland giving some master classes. She went to one of the classes and we both went to the concert they gave. They are a wonderful group that play an eclectic program of music that includes a number of compositions written for them. Here is Astor Piazzolla's "Libertango": <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BOMbCsFV4ns> that was recorded about a mile up the road from where we live in Bethesda!! Our county was very courageous about 15 years ago when they built a concert hall on the mansion property and we are better for it.

2020-06-13

How about another piano concerto by a Russian composer? Why not? Let's have a listen to the famous Tchaikovsky Piano Concerto #1, admirably played by Anna Federova accompanied by the Nordwestdeutsche Philharmonie led by Yves Abel: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hNfpMRSCFPE> Here is a nice short video of Ms. Federova discussing Rachmaninoff. Contest Alert!!! I desperately want to give away a prize. This one should be easy. Who won the inaugural Tchaikovsky Competition in the piano category?

2020-06-14

For reflection Sunday we have Bach's Goldberg Variations. This is a special version, performed by a number of instrumentalists (and some vocalists) for these pandemic times: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O2QqWC7CKel> I'll say no more other than to urge you to listen and think.

2020-06-15

Welcome to Week 13 of what hope is not going to be an endless wandering in the wilderness.

Of the 32 Beethoven piano sonatas, #31 is my favorite. Here we have Vladimir Ashkenazy playing at a live recital at University of Essex in 1972: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QI1viKPG3TI> I saw him about five years later when I was a post doc at Cornell and he gave a mesmerizing performance of this sonata. I had a special thrill this morning when my YouTube feed showed that Joan Chamorro had given me a  for my comment to the video of 'Love Your Spell is Everywhere' featuring the young vocalists Alaba Armengou and Élia Bastida: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JRtH41FP3ni> As soon as it's safe to travel, I am going back to Barcelona to see them live!

I totally forgot to mention that four astute readers had the correct answer to Saturday's contest. Van Cliburn was the winner of the first Tchaikovsky Piano Competition held in Moscow in 1958. I received a note from a loyal reader yesterday in response to my music choice of Bach's Goldberg Variations., asking if I had read Richard Powers fine novel, 'The Goldbug Variations.' OMG!! Powers is my favorite American author, and this is for me, his finest book. To all my loyal readers I give this one a big 👍

2020-06-16

Two of the great ladies of American song. Does it get any better than this? Jo Stafford and Ella Fitzgerald having a great time with classic songs about love: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ctyT-9o4VI0> There wasn't any description about when this was recorded but judging by some other clips, I suspect this took place in the early 1960s. Stafford and her husband did a number of music spoof recordings under the names: Darlene and Jonathan Edwards. Most of the recordings were sung off key and with terrible rhythm which made them all the more fun. As a special treat, here are Darlene and Jonathan Edwards on the Jack Benny show from 1958! How I wish we had television as witty as this right now.

Contest Alert!!! Today is famous in literary circles (and I know we have some very able and literate readers who will get this one right away). It's a two part question: 1) what is today famous for and 2) who spoke this famous line (greatly excerpted – hint, hint) "...the sea crimson sometimes like fire and the glorious sunsets and the fig trees in the Alameda gardens yes and all the queer little streets and the pink and blue and yellow houses and the rose gardens and the jessamine and geraniums and cactuses and Gibraltar as a girl where I was a Flower of the mountain..."? A prize awaits the correct answers!

Stacey Kent has been one of my favorite contemporary vocalists. She floats between a number of different jazz influenced genres as well as the classic American songbook. Along with other artists, she has been doing isolation videos. Here she is with 'A Time for Love' something that there is too little of these days: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=iU-S2ScUKLk>

The answer to yesterday's contest was Ulysses by James Joyce where the action of the book takes place on June 16th which is now referred to in literary circles as 'Bloomsday'. The quotation was from the lengthy soliloquy delivered by Molly Bloom in the book's final chapter. Here is Angeline Ball from the film Bloom doing the last fifty lines, well worth watching, yes, yes, yes!

2020-06-18

In response to my selection of Stacey Kent yesterday, a loyal reader asked whether I had ever listened to Nancy LaMott. This was new name to me. She was a fine singer who was taken from us way to early at the age of 44 from uterine cancer. Here she is with an original song written by David Friedman, 'I'll be Here with You' that aired on a Valentine's Day episode of Good Morning America: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zb40nYUshTE> There are a number of clips and albums on YouTube.

Let us all take a minute to mourn the death of Vera Lynn, the English singer, whose song 'We'll Meet Again' became an anthem of hope during WW-II.

2020-06-19

Let us stay with cabaret performers again today. Andrea Marcovicci got her start in movies and television (I remember her well from an old Kojak show in the early 1970s). In the 1980s she turned to cabaret and is an arresting singer. She celebrates her 65th birthday in this clip from a stint at Joe's Pub singing the Cole Porter song 'Don't Look at Me That Way':

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TM34ABIP1\_8 and paying homage to the great chanteuse, Julie Wilson.

2020-06-20

Cabaret again today, this time featuring Diana Krall. YouTube has a number of full concert performances that you can seek out. Here is a music video of 'Just the Way You Are', a fine Billy Joel composition: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=d8RYUZT57XA> and as a double treat Saturday here is a fun conversation and performance of 'You Can't Take That Away from Me' with Tony Bennett!!!: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZogFMxidChM> this song by George and Ira Gershwin was first sung by Fred Astaire way back in 1937: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fuufFgAMkGE> why not three music selections and a bonus dance video with Fred and Ginger?

2020-06-21

This week's reflection Sunday piece is the magical Schubert Symphony #8. While it is unfinished by the composer it still has a lot going for it. Here is the Vienna Philharmonic under the direction of Phillippe Jordan: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Tgzj4Vd3HHk&t=479s>

2020-06-22

Welcome to week 14 of the newsletter. I was hoping to be out of business by now but the virus has a mind of its own and I will persevere.

One of my loyal readers responded to my music selections, noting Karen Carpenter's fine voice. Most of her work was with her brother Richard, but here is a fine duet with Ella Fitzgerald from 1980:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=HDp9b9eYoLM> Carpenter had a lifelong battle with anorexia that finally took her life at the age of 32; another fine performing artist who left way too soon. The American director, Todd Haynes made a short film on Karen's life using mainly Barbie dolls to represent the characters. It is well worth watching on YouTube.

2020-06-23

A couple of weeks ago I featured the Manhattan Transfer singing 'The Boy from New York City'. It is such a fave of mine that I just had to link to another recording. Here is Janis Siegel at Indiana University with two of their vocal jazz ensembles in an up tempo version:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=7EcXR8pUImo> I did my graduate work at IU and some of my best memories came from all the wonderful concerts and recitals from various groups at the IU school of music!

Though my youthful infatuation with the operas of Richard Wagner have waned, I continue to find certain parts quite moving. One of these is Wotan's farewell from Die Walküre. This excerpt is from the famous, or infamous, depending on your view; I am of the former camp, Bayreuth 1976 production.

Donald McIntyre and Gwyneth Jones are the singers under the direction of Pierre Boulez: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4tDP-K1dQ-M> as a Tuesday Twofer (obviously it is Wednesday but the selection was made on Tuesday and try to rhyme Twofer with Wednesday!), here is Gwyneth Jones in the immolation scene from the same production but the final opera of the tetralogy Götterdämmerung: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2JgMt8GWdyU> Damn, I may need to interrupt my binging of 'The Wire' and rewatch this Ring Cycle!!!

2020-06-25

Talk about strange coincidences!!! Two weeks ago I was thinking about what songs to begin to work on for what will probably be a pandemic recital. The Schumann Op. 39 songs to Eichendorff poems are one set that I have been working on over the past several months, but what to pair them with? I thought that Beethoven's 'An de Ferne Geliebte' would be a good one as it was the first 'official' song cycle written. I was discussing this with my voice teacher last week and he agreed the Beethoven cycle would be a good one to do. Yesterday's New York Times had an article on two singers who are doing one on one telephone performances! How cool and only \$40 for a performance! Here is the great German baritone Dietrich Fischer-Dieskau singing the cycle accompanied by Gerald Moore: https://www.youtube.com/watch?time\_continue=14&v=KOk7EWYbyqk

2020-06-26

I have always enjoyed Norah Jones. Her she is with Wynton Marsalis and his jazz ensemble singing the Ray Charles song, 'You Don't Know Me': https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=T2\_9Rkk4f\_g Here is the original audio recording by Charles: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jyTiyHI8g4s>

2020-06-27

One of my favorite Motown songs was 'I Heard it Through the Grapevine' by Marvin Gaye. Here is a more funky live performance from the Montreux Jazz Festival: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Y7dGdrP3pms> It was a great dance tune when I was in college as the original version shows: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hajBdDM2qdg>

2020-06-28

For reflection Sunday, let us turn to Felix Mendelssohn's 5th symphony also known as the Reformation Symphony. Here is my current favorite orchestra, the Frankfurt Radio Symphony under the direction of Jérémie Rhorer: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=otcrnrQAwD8>

2020-06-29

Welcome to Week 15 of the newsletter!!

I could do several weeks on Motown and still not cover all the singers and songs that were part of my high school and college memories. Let's spend some time with the all-time faves. Summer is a time for taking it to the street and this can be done safely even in a time of pandemic distancing. Who else to get us off our easy chairs and moving but Martha and the Vandellas! The iconic 'Dancing in the Streets' is just the recipe: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CdvlTn5cAVc> and here is a great summer twofer with the same group doing 'Heat Wave': https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dAvq\_gimOto

2020-06-30

Keeping with the Motown vibe, let's look at one of the big male groups that rocked during the 1960s. The Temptations were just a huge hit machine for Barry Gordy's record label. Even though the personnel changed over the years, they always had a crisp sound. My favorite recording is 'My Girl': https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=C\_CSjcm-z1w

2020-07-01

Let's continue with Motown. Smokey Robinson and the Miracles were another one of the staples in the Motown hit parade. One of their great songs was 'Tracks of My Tears.' While Smokey was great with the song, I'm choosing the phenomenal cover by the phenomenal (why have I not had her in the newsletter?) Linda Ronstadt: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OYLSvXYp\_5U Ronstadt wowed a lot of us back in the mid-1960 with The Stone Poneys where she was the featured vocalist on 'Different Drum': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=w9qsDgA1q8Y> (I had an upstairs neighbor in college who played this so many times that the grooves on the record wore out) and there is this bizarre live version with a pick up band that seems to be playing something totally different: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TGZznJXY1Xc> it's from a NYC night club as per the comment by Alan White. Ronstadt was a great rock and roller as well with this version of Back in the USA accompanied by Chuck Berry, Keith Richard and George Harrison!!!: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=u7MwyZnMdYY> Showing her versatility, Ronstadt did a run in 'The Pirates of Penzance' first in Central Park and then on Broadway: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RfjAJn45C-w> I'll have to stop here before this departs from COVID-19 and becomes a Linda Ronstadt fan blog!

The Band were one of the iconic groups of the 1965-75 era. They produced a lot of influential work and their tours with Bob Dylan were legendary. I was fortunate enough to see one of the performances on the final tour with Dylan when I was in grad school at IU. The Band's final concert was recorded by the great American filmmaker, Martin Scorsese and released as 'The Last Waltz.' It is still a staple on cable television. Here is one of their iconic songs, 'The Weight': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=g-w9OclUnns> it is from the Scorsese film and backed up by the Staple Singers. Let's give you a Thursday twofer with this all-star version sung in memory of Levon Helm's passing: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BlgDC6mOU0o>

Martha Argerich is a very young 79 years of age and like some of her male predecessors still playing phenomenally well. She has played pieces from virtually all the top composers of the piano rep since her debut recital at the age of 8. There are a number of fine YouTube videos but let's just look and revel in the most recent from pre-pandemic December 2019. It is the Beethoven Piano Concerto #1 and a couple of nice encores: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BF7pmimzjBs> Let this be an inspiration to all of us over the age of 65!

Happy Independence Day to all my American Readers!

The Eurovision Song Contest has been around for a long time. The best known winners were ABBA (1974) and Celine Dion (1988) though there have been some others who have had moderate careers such as Lulu (1969). Now we have a movie, Eurovision Song Contest: The Story of Fire Saga, with Will Farrell and Rachel McAdams that is a clever parody of the annual event. Here we have a wonderful song sung by McAdams from the movie: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=AvzotsxIjLI> the movie is streaming on Netflix

Let us turn to love for this reflection Sunday. What better way to explore love's passion than the second act love duet from Richard Wagner's Tristan and Isolde. It's a draining opera for both singers and audience and perhaps the best place to view it is the summer festival at Bayreuth where directors are given freedom to experiment and the acoustics are exemplary. Here are Waltraud Meier and Siegfried Jerusalem under the baton of Daniel Barenboim in a 1995 production by Heiner Müller: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lQNcTYVlcEg> I would be remiss if I didn't provide my loyal readers with Isolde's Liebestod that concludes the opera: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OAEkTK6aKUM> While we are on the subject of redemptive love, let's not forget the efforts that Maestro Barenboim has taken for peace in the mid-East with his West-Eastern Divan Orchestra. Here is a concert performance of the Liebestod with Meier and that orchestra (it looks to be from the 2008 Ravello Festival on the Amalfi Coast): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=jtKxaUeAD5I> Enjoy and think about better times that will come following the pandemic!!!

Welcome to Week 16 of a Newsletter that Shows no Sign of Ending

Let's stick with opera for today. Yesterday we had a nice presentation tale of love induced by magic potion. What about demented love you might ask? I have just a piece for you, Richard Strauss's Salome. Based on a play by Oscar Wilde, the opera was shocking upon introduction and some opera houses refused to stage it. I have seen the final scene done in concert as well as on the opera stage but I must say, this version with German soprano Nadja Michael (who also studied at Indiana University!!!) is too over the top: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=nan2WjNfVrU> A semi-staged and well sung version is also good listening: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qa9ug0g0iAM>

2020-07-07

It is looking like it may be an all opera week! Here is young love epitomized by the rose presentation scene from Richard Strauss's Der Rosenkavalier. This is a filmed version of the 1962 Vienna Opera production with Sena Jurniac and Anneliese Rothenberger: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=G3nmm5l0-Ys> IMO, this duet has never been done any better than this and the sumptuous staging is to die for. It was no secret that Strauss preferred women's voices and his best works were for them. However, the Italian Singer's aria from Rosenkavalier is splendid as Piotr Beczala shows in this Vienna Production: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=K8OvpdGrWUE> Beczala was in DC several years ago for a recital with Vocal Arts DC. I was invited to the after-recital dinner and was seated next to him! What a surprise. I asked him what the most difficult aria for him and he replied it was this Strauss piece. The tenor comes on right when the piece starts without any other warm up in the opera and departs right afterwards. He noted, “the high notes have to be very secure or you really end up fluffing your lines.”

In memoriam - Charlie Daniels passed away the other day (not COVID-19) related. He and his band always had a great time performing. His best-known hit was ‘The Devil Went Down to Georgia.’ Here is the band live at the Grand Ole Opry: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=J5j69aEZ8xE>

2020-07-09

I was going to post a clip from the final scene of Der Rosenkavalier yesterday to close out the romantic love theme from that opera but wanted to acknowledge Charlie Daniel’s passing. There are a number of good clips but I have always liked Renee Fleming in this role. Here is a Met production with Fleming, Susan Graham and Christine Schäfer with Edo de Waart conducting: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fi810zB3L04> Also, let’s take a moment to remember the great violinist Ida Haendel who just passed away. Here she is playing an encore piece by Sarasate, ‘Gypsy Airs’ from 2008 when she was 85 years young: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=uGXArQJA3Po>

2020-07-10

I have been giving short shrift to violinists and will remedy this today. One of my favorite pieces is Max Bruch’s Scottish Fantasy. The first recording I had back in the vinyl days was the one by Kyung-Wha Chung that was recorded back in 1972. Here is a much later live performance from Seoul in 2012. The conductor is her brother Myung-Whun Chung and frequent collaborator in chamber music performances: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0Bux10fh3CI>

2020-07-11

One of the finest singer/songwriters of our day is John Legend. Bet you didn’t know that out of college (UPenn) he was a management consultant with Boston Consulting Group!! He clearly made the right choice to go into the entertainment industry. He is also one of fifteen to grab the EGOT (Emmy, Grammy, Oscar, Tony). Here is ‘All of Me’ in the official music video format: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=450p7goxZqg> The song was written for his soon to be wife, Crissy Teigen. She is in the video and it was filmed in Italy the day before their wedding (I think the end shots were of the actual wedding). Wow, my loyal readers do get a lot for their money reading this newsletter.

For reflection Sunday I offer two pieces. The famous London recital venue Wigmore Hall hosted empty-seat lunchtime pandemic recitals during the Month of June. I will link to some of these in future newsletters but one piece that seems apt for reflection is Franz Schubert’s great song cycle, ‘Die Winterreise’. Yes, it is bleak, but I can think of no other cycle where the music and poetry are so intertwined. The cycle has been done by both men and women of differing voice ranges though it was original written in the tenor range. Here we have Mitsuko Uchida (a great recitalist in her own right) and tenor, Mark Padmore: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2en3ZugteLI> Padmore’s voice sounds better than I remember and his interpretation of the cycle is sublime. The second selection is by the great John Coltrane, another phenomenal artist taken away from us at the height of his talent. His composition 'Alabama' was written shortly after the 1963 bombing of a church in Birmingham that killed three teenage girls. We are fortunate that he performed this on Ralph Gleason's Jazz Casual show late in the same year: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=saN1BwIjXjA> Coltrane is with his great sidemen: McCoy Tyner, piano; Jimmy Garrison, bass; and Elvin Jones, drums. Schubert's bleak outlook and Coltrane's sense of optimism (his great recording 'A Love Supreme' which crystalized his sense of spirituality was recorded a year later) seem like a good pairing.

Welcome to Week 17 of the Pandemic Newsletter!

I have one more opera duet to begin the week as we will be shifting music genres. Here are Nicolai Gedda and Lisa Della Casa in the prison scene from Gounod's Faust: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=19R-Kk0ThGA> Both were exquisite singers. Gedda sang roles in almost every single language and Della Casa was a renowned Strauss interpreter.

2020-07-14

Let us have a listen to another pandemic recital from Wigmore Hall. Canadian pianist Angela Hewitt is an excellent pianist who has specialized in Bach both in recordings and recitals. One could do worse than listen to Bach though it sometimes brings back nightmarish memories of my music theory battles analyzing Bach chorales. I think my loyal listeners will enjoy this solo piano recital as much as I have: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=tfFXCiUHOGU>

2020-07-15

Let's get back to country!! Tennessee Waltz is just plain wonderful. Most people think it was written for Patti Paige but they would be wrong. Lots of singers have covered this and this rendition by Bonnie Raitt and Norah Jones is fine despite the screwed up video: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=zzDUi\_L6MzA Paige's original 1950 version is here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5c-rVoBdZDE>

2020-07-16

I am going to stay with country for a day or two more. Country music is evocative of many moods, having its roots in a number of sectors within the United States. I mentioned Ken Burns fine PBS documentary about this genre a number weeks ago and it is worth watching if you haven't. Here is a song of remembrance by Vince Gill, "Go Rest High on That Mountain" accompanied by Alison Krauss and Ricky Skaggs: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NwFiWCUkk4M>

2020-07-17

This is another one of my country faves!!! Pancho and Lefty was composed by Townes Van Zandt who battled various addictions throughout his life but managed to have great influence on a lot of performers. Here is the video of the song performed by Willie Nelson and Merle Haggard: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=UoKvUYbGu7A> just good music telling a good story, it doesn't get much better than this!

2020-07-18

Let's wrap the country selection with The Chicks who despite dropping the 'Dixie' from their name continue to stay true to their country rock roots. They have always been political going back to their protest of the Iraq war which pretty much ended their Nashville career. Here is a song from their newest album, March March: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=xwBjF\_VVfV\_E I'll let the music and video do the talking. Let us also take a moment to remember Congressman John Lewis who passed away yesterday. He was a stalwart of the Civil Rights movement. Also from the new album is the title track 'Gaslighter': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sbVPcPL30xc>

2020-07-19

For reflection Sunday let's go to a pandemic performance of the Dvorak 8th Symphony. The venue is an empty Concertgebouw in Amsterdam. Listen to the introduction on how they set up the stage. It's a wonderful performance directed by Gustavo Gimeno: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EQTgC1Kelcl>

2020-07-20

Welcome to Week 18 of the Never-Ending Pandemic

Joaquin Rodrigo's Concierto de Aranjuez for guitar and orchestra is one of my favorite pieces. Here is the great Spanish guitarist Pepe Romero at the Guitar Festival in Belgrade: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=QPcjtG6FvX8> The second movement has been adapted by a good number of jazz instrumentalists. Gil Evans did a wonderful arrangement for Miles Davis 'Sketches of Spain' LP: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=38zRx9AYDHQ> the adagio movement from the Concerto is the first track but the whole album is worth a listen.

2020-07-21

It is always a fun time when greats of the guitar get together to just play. From the Crossroads Festival of 2010 here are BB King, Eric Clapton, Robert Cray and Jimmie Vaughan playing 'The Thrill is Gone': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Nu4tjTyqbho> I have a fond memory of seeing Clapton live with Jack Bruce and Ginger Baker when they made up The Cream back in 1969.

2020-07-22

Let us spend the rest of this week with some nice pandemic inspired videos. We begin with a great version of 'The Longest Time' the Billy Joel song but with COVID-19 associated lyrics. The singers come from a bunch of different choral organizations in Canada and the US: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=LpAKcQufacc> the greatest part of this is the guy getting his haircut by his lockdown partner. Speaking of which, I need to get Ms. Goldhammer to trim my locks.

2020-07-23

Loyal readers will recall the wonderful ABBA performance for the Queen of Sweden that I posted a while back. Here is a 'Momma Mia' cast doing a riff on that song with of course pandemic lyrics. Enjoy and have a good chuckle!!!: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FmDcg59Xzek> Let us take a moment to remember the great jazz singer Annie Ross who recently passed. Perhaps her greatest fame came as part of the vocal trio: Lambert, Hendricks and Ross. Here is the trio backed by the Count Basie Orchestra singing 'Avenue C': https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=E99TIXB\_swg Ross was also known for her solo composition, 'Twisted' . Here is the Lambert, Hendricks and Ross version:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=JXwMgIlmoaM> and one of the great covers by Joni Mitchell:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4Vmq-DHQRf4>

2020-07-24

Staying with quarantine 'concerts' here is a group of Long Island musicians rocking 'We Are the World':

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ITK84KEDMW8> local musicians full of energy and spirit, something that all of us need a lot more of. There is this more polished version from Broadway United:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BdnteHS9bnY> but the theme is still ---- We Are All In This Together!!! Taking time out from COVID-19 thinking – Taylor Swift has a new album!!!! GREAT NEWS!!!

Here is a vid from 'Folklore': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2s5xdY6MCeI> and the Washington Post has the backstory on 'The Last Great American Dynasty.' Enjoy this triple treat of music videos.

2020-07-25

It's Saturday I think; I am beginning to lose track of the days as they all run together. What a better way to celebrate the pandemic than a song from the iconic show Saturday Night Live! Here is a song done by

Pete Davidson and Adam Sandler, 'Stuck in the House':

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=3VubWlYr9Ek>

2020-07-26

For this reflection Sunday let us have a good time with some fine jazz. Here are icons Ron Carter and Hank Jones live in Kobe Japan with a varied supporting cast. Carter has played bass on an amazing 2221 recording sessions and Jones was part of a great musical family that included brothers Elvin (drummer with John Coltrane) and trumpeter Thad (who headed up a great band with Mel Lewis at the Village Vanguard for a lot of years. I heard them one time live and it was memorable). Here is the concert to enjoy and think: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=93o0llbWCLw&t=3580s> I always find good jazz conducive to meditation.

Welcome to Week 19! The hits just keep on coming.

We are going to stay with pandemic performances for a little while longer. First up this week is troubled Portland who have the double whammy of COVID-19 and a questionable occupation force. Here is the

Motown classic 'Ain't No Mountain High Enough': https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RDekA8Bqc\_0

We are all in this together as this group points out and we can surmount this virus. Here are the song's original interpreters: Marvin Gaye and Tammi Terrell (you have to overlook the horrible lip-synching):

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=IC5PL0XImjw>

2020-07-28

This is the greatest pandemic video collage that I've seen to date. It will take something really special to top it. Here are a bunch and I mean a bunch of Chicagoans singing and riffing off 'Sweet Home Chicago.' The performers are identified at the end of the video and try to see how many you can identify (I got 10 of them that were the easiest). Hard blues will put a smile on your face:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=V7-Nxgwa2iM>

2020-07-29

Today's pandemic choral presentation comes from Canada. The virtual choir does a nice rendition of Leonard Cohen's Hallelujah, another iconic piece: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XIDim9aYWds>

For a solo version here is Jeff Buckley another one who died too young:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=y8AWFf7EAc4>

2020-07-30

A lot of years ago when I was still an aspiring boy treble singing at All Soul's, the Episcopal church right around the corner from where we lived we sang classic Rogers and Hammerstein song from Carousel, 'You'll Never Walk Alone' in a choral arrangement. It still gives me hope when I hear it sung. Here is a virtual choir and orchestra from the Brooklyn College Conservatory of Music:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FTQr4yU5APE> We are all optimists!!!

2020-07-31

Baseball season is here except for the Miami Marlins who have 14 players sidelined with COVID-19 and maybe the Phillies who had a couple of players test positive yesterday. There are a number of topflight players who have decided to sit this abbreviated season out because of either personal or family health concerns. For those and the active players stay safe as possible. Here is a delightful choral arrangement of 'Take Me Out to the Ballgame' by the same arranger who did yesterday's 'You'll Never Walk Alone' and several ball players participate in this one! Play Ball:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=MlwlI9fQlWU> Reminder – pick up some Cracker Jacks next time I am out running errands.

2020-08-01

Let's close out this week's pandemic choral selections with this collection of New York City singers and musicians. 'How Can I Keep from Singing': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VLPP3XmYxXg> This captures the spirit quite well. I'll add a second song video from a Canadian singer who pretty much does only covers, Brigitte Wickens. I don't know much about her at all but I found the clips of all the COVID-19 health care workers quite moving: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Osdpf55Y4Fg>

2020-08-02

Live music is starting up in Europe under these trying times. Here is a chamber music concert from the Solsberg Festival this past June. There is a sparse audience present. It's a fine performance of works by Beethoven for clarinet, cello and piano: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=4O1f-X0Fllc> I'll be moving away from the pandemic choral works as the novelty is wearing thin (though I continue to applaud all those who are making the effort to perform).

Let's get back to a classic US road song. Before we had the Interstate highway system there was numbered system of patchwork US highways. Even numbers were for east-west roads and the odds were north-south. US route 1 ran from the Florida Keys to Maine while the 101 went from San Diego to Seattle. One of my faves was old route 6 that went from the tip of Cape Cod all the way to San Francisco. Perhaps none was as famous as Route 66, running from Chicago to Los Angeles. It carried countless Midwesterners to California during the depression dust bowl years, spawned a television show, and a classy hit song. Here is jazz singer Diana Krall's version: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BgeVx8QoVaQ> from the Montreal Jazz Festival accompanied by Paul Keller and Russell Malone. Nat King Cole was the first to make this a hit and here is an old video: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dCYApJtsyd0>

2020-08-04

What could be better than a nice summer afternoon in Barcelona and music filling the square? Good listening and dancing music from the Sant Abreu Jazz Band under the direction of Joan Chamorro. I don't know where he finds all these great young vocalists and here is Eva Fernandez singing Georgia on my Mind: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rRWZxFXXBCE> The Tuesday Twofer also brings this Ray Charles Version: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qIp9TwSEgFg> from the Montreux Jazz Festival.

2020-08-05

Today we will pay homage to one of the great pianists who just passed away, Leon Fleischer. Here is the Washington Post obituary. He began studying with the great Artur Schnabel when he was nine years old and his recordings of the five Beethoven piano concertos with the Cleveland Orchestra remain classic interpretations. Fleischer lost the use of his right hand in the early 1960s because of a nerve problem, recovering some use following BoTox injections 20 years later. Here is a late career performance of Bach's 'Sheep may Safely Graze' <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=GyOEOuUPvM0> and of course we need to also look and listen to a performance when he could not use his right hand at all; here is the Ravel concerto for left hand and orchestra: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Jgj6jScPWK8>

2020-08-06

This clip from the Australian collective Stringsplace came up on my YouTube feed yesterday. This is an interesting concept and looking at their videos they do covers from all different types of music. Perhaps the little elves who reside inside the YouTube brain know that I like Bossa Nova and are constantly finding new arrangements of top Antonio Carlos Jobim compositions are working their hearts out to please me. It doesn't matter as I found this version of Desafinado quite arresting: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-YkK5eSIX7M> If I am ever in Australia and planning an event needing music, I will contact these folks.

2020-08-07

I want to stay with Stringsplace for a couple of more days as there are some great classical covers. Here is the Mahler Symphony #5 Adagietto arranged for string quartet. I've always found this to be both haunting and soothing. I cannot say anything more about this than just listen: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8UgGLEccLWE> Here is the full orchestral version from the World Orchestra for Peace conducted by Valery Gergiev: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=CFQQsu6VBYA>

2020-08-08

The great thing about doing these daily music selections is finding excellent performers that I've not heard of. Nashville-based pianist Beegie Adair is one such artist. She has been associated with the Nashville Jazz Workshop for some time. Here she is with vocalist Monica Ramey performing 'Make Someone Happy' https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fEmG6\_INL9A I just love 'The Great American Songbook!!!’ How much do I love these songs? I went to Amazon Music and bought two of Ms. Ramey’s albums!

2020-08-09

For this reflection Sunday, let us have a listen to Hector Berlioz’s ‘Symphonie Fantastique.’ I always enjoyed playing this on Halloween just to hear the witches sabbath movement. Here is the orchestra of Radio France conducted by Myung-Whun Chung: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5HggPpjlH5c>

2020-08-10

Welcome to Week 21!

Live opera is coming back! Not in the US but in several places in Europe. Here is American soprano Lisette Operosa (I had the pleasure of meeting her several years ago here in DC when she gave song recital) in Madrid singing ‘addio del passato’ from Verdi’s La Traviata at the end of last month in Madrid: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=2ldOBson0vw> The ovation at the end of the aria was well deserved and she then starts in with the second verse that is customarily deleted in modern performances. For my loyal readers here is Ms. Operosa in the Act 1 ‘Sempre libera.’

2020-08-11

Here is another live performance from Europe. French Soprano Julie Fuchs sings Deh vieni non tardar from Mozart’s Marriage of Figaro. This is from last month with the National Opera Orchestra of Paris conducted by Philippe Jordan: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=XSzO4QAYGjE>

2020-08-12

What could be finer than some chamber music by Beethoven? There really is not a good alternative answer for me. While the string quartets are often exalted, he wrote a bunch of other fine stuff as well. Here is the Archduke piano trio, op. 97. with members from the Camerata Pacifica: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=eZRNLXBB8Q> Let us take a moment to remember Trini Lopez who just passed as a result of COVID-19. He was a huge hit in the US during my teen years, singing a variety of songs. Here is perhaps his greatest hit, ‘If I had a Hammer,’: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Kp1z8EzZ5Hs>

2020-08-13

For today’s music selection let us go to a time just before the pandemic hit. Here is the Frankfurt Radio Symphony performing the Saint-Saëns cello concerto with soloist Gautier Capuçon under the baton of Alain Altinoglu. The performance was recorded on Valentines Day of this year: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=pfBkzWNQTpl>

2020-08-14

A loyal reader writes that I should feature the Donizetti aria ‘Una furtiva lagrima’ in honor the Bergamo Atalanta football club as that Italian city was Donizetti’s birthplace. Of course I always honor my reader’s requests but this time I do the reader one better! Here is Peruvian tenor, Juan Diego Florez from his 2015 Salzburg Festival recital. He accompanies himself on guitar in Malagueña, then sings Granada before exiting. The crowd won’t stand for this and bring him back for a spectacular encore,

Donizetti's "Ah! mes amis....pour mon ame" from the Daughter of the Regiment. Florez handles the 9 high Cs as if they are nothing: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=x5aLni632MY> I don't want to slight my reader, so here is Una furtiva lagrima from L'elisir d'amore: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=NPshURqqyA>

2020-08-15

I don't think as many greats have been on one show that I can remember. Here is a television show from 1972 with all the legendary swing singers and players: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bNMM8HuX6PM> Nothing more needs to be said as the music speaks for itself this Saturday!

2020-08-16

For reflection Sunday I am in a gospel mood. 'Just a Closer Walk with Thee' has been around since 1941. It has been covered by a huge number of artists from a variety of musical styles. Here is a version done by Wynton Marsalis and his band at Lincoln Center with guests Eric Clapton and Taj Mahal: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=q5krFNUMQHI> Here is my favorite Barcelona group headed by Joan Chamorro with Magali Datzira on the vocal line: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=bylCFXdW0c0> This one is a recording, but who does it better than Patsy Cline and Willie Nelson: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=OOKaircCiGI> ? and finally the pure voice of Joan Baez: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9mR1P4nc-bk>

2020-08-17

Welcome to Week 22 of the continuing COVID-19 saga!

Let's kick the week off with the iconic song of my teen years, Bob Dylan's Blowin' in the Wind. It seems a fitting anthem for today. Though it has been covered by a large number of artists (including Marlene Dietrich!), I'll offer up a couple of my favorites beginning with the duet version from Dylan and Joan Baez (I think this is circa 1982): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lo3HY7Yebjk> another duet from Fort Collins, Colorado from 1976: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RxMQYF6EFCU> Here is Bob in a 1963 TV clip when his voice was still fresh: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vWwgrjilMXA>

Here is a wonderful music tribute to the great singer songwriter Townes Van Zandt. Van Zandt wrote numerous songs that have become iconic. This collection of all-star singers do justice Van Zandt's compositions: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Oc32Z424DCc> Here is Townes Van Zandt and Nanci Griffith from 1993: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Kc6AsDmuD2U> I did not know of Nanci Griffith until I saw these clips. She is wonderful and here she is on Letterman, singing 'From a Distance': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=yBBI1dk-HQ> Bette Midler made this a great hit, but Griffith was the first to record it.

I am going to stay with Nanci Griffith for one more day. Here she is in the PBS show Austin City Limits show from 1989: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=reZpbkE8o\_M the famous Woolworth Five and Dime song is near the end of this clip. Here she is singing Kate Wolf's great song, Across the Great

Divide with Emmylou Harris singing the harmony: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=6uQNRtsntY>
 Finally, Nanci covers Bob Dylan's Boots of Spanish Leather:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=k1KxthvX1Ms> and for a comparison, the Dylan original:

Because it is my favorite song cycle and because it is Jonas Kauffmann accompanied by Helmut Deutsch, this is a must listen: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9M3tZE-ffxw> According to the notes it was recorded on April 27 which explains the absence of an audience. This is just wonderful!!!

I've featured classical chamber music over the weeks but let's hear from one of the finest jazz chamber groups ever to play together. Of course it has to be the Modern Jazz Quartet that was founded in 1952 and with only one change in personnel played together for a lot of years. Here is a live concert at the North Sea Festival in The Netherlands: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=l10wV4m4Dug>

Gershwin and dance, a good coupling indeed. No, we are not going with Fred and Ginger though they are fantastic in every movie they did. This time the dance is ballet, and the choreographer is George Balanchine: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VM\_91kZVQ1o&t=8s Yes, I know you all want to see Fred and Ginger. Here they are in the closing number 'Shall We Dance':

You cannot ever go wrong with Bach as this clip from MASH shows:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=0zWbpZPsrfc> For this reflection Sunday, here is the concerto for violin in a minor featuring Julia Fischer and the Baltic Sea Youth Philharmonic (it's always good when young musicians can play with accomplished artists): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=sDyDHvZKl8g> and as an added treat here is the concerto for 3 violins in D major:

The video is choppy and awful. The sound is passably decent. The singing and guitar playing are sublime. Neil Young and Norah Jones on the stage at the same time for a school benefit concert, what could be better. I was a senior in college when the album with Crazy Horse came out and wore out the grooves on it. A bunch of great songs and to my mind the greatest is 'Down by the River,' here is the benefit performance: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RDEflxWEID0> here is Neil Young and Crazy Horse at Farm Aid (1994): <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TIX8Rz5C3LY> Young was one of the co-founders of Farm Aid in the mid 1980s.

I don't think I have had any Handel since the Messiah excepts around Easter time. Let us remedy this oversight with the 'Water Music' played on period instruments by the Akademie für alte Musik Belin. This is a live performance from 2016: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=EVAB2z1RPu4> The first performance took place on the River Thames in London. I cannot find any record about how many times it has been played in/on the original setting.

As long as the Sant Andreu Jazz Band drops new videos, I will feature them!! Remember that except for the occasional soloist, these are all kids 20 years old and under! Here is 'He's My Guy' which has been covered by some impressive musicians: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=8X0gMTRo7\_c Here is Sarah Vaughn and Clifford Brown: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=SL4k3CJKJOM> and of course Peggy Lee: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9KfQk0I\_oBM

With everything that swirling around these days I needed to find something uplifting to listen to today (don't even ask me to post one of IceT's provocative videos; while I admire his work, it won't make the cut for a family friendly newsletter). Vivaldi composed a lot of stuff, but I go back to The Four Seasons for enjoyment. Here is the great German violinist, Anne-Sophie Mutter as the featured soloist: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=9eEap53WxKY>

2020-08-28

Beethoven's 'Hammerklavier' Sonata may be one of the more difficult solo pieces in the repertoire. A number of young pianists attack this piece with force but little subtlety. Notes come cascading out at the sacrifice of a musical line. Not so with Vladimir Ashkenazy. Here is a fine live performance from 1980: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=FjJPNVJMMN4>

2020-08-29

One of my top ten faves in the entire music world is the Bach Partita #2 in D minor. Many newsletters ago I had a performance of the final movement from this piece. Today we have the whole thing played by a young Itzhak Perlman and every note is just right on. Enjoy: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=qtyTaE7LvVs>

As my readers know, I am always impressed by good youth performances. For this reflection Sunday here is an exceptional performance that was on my YouTube feed yesterday. It is the Dvorak Symphony #9 From the New World: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=O\_tPb4JFgmw The orchestra is Gimnazija Kranj Symphony Orchestra under the baton of maestro Nejc Bečan. It is a school in Slovenia and this is the extent of my knowledge. There are some other YouTube clips of performances worth watching like this one of the Barry Manilow hit: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ULCAJrC1Ia4> or this one of the Bert Bacharach hit: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=D-EE9xCG9oY> Stuff like this makes me realize that the kids are alright and things will get better!! Optimism is far better than pessimism. BTW, how do the learn such good American accents in Slovenia?

Welcome to Week 24 of the Pandemic Newsletter

Let's stay with Dvorak for another day. Here is the fine Serenade for Strings with the Netherlands Chamber Orchestra. It is a live performance from the Concertgebouw, filmed in 2016:

How have gone this long without ever once posting a clip of the wonderful Silk Road Ensemble? (Better question is why my readers have not written to me about this omission? 😊) Let us correct this right now! Here is the ensemble performing 'Arabian Waltz':

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=fZpEjrd56k> You can read more about the ensemble that was formed out of a project started by cellist Yo-Yo Ma. My wife and I saw them live as part of the Inauguration Week festivities back in 2008 which was a special treat. We had front row tickets right next to WaPo columnist E.J. Dionne. There is a wonderful documentary of the group that HBO did several years ago, 'The Music of Strangers: Yo-Yo Ma and The Silk Road Ensemble' that can be found on a number of streaming sites (Google is your friend) and here is a nice clip of a concert following the Berlin Film Festival screening: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=BWYo388T1XU>

Today is a special treat day for the Lisztomania fans. No, I'm not going to screen the great Ken Russell film, though it is worth seeking out if only for the high camp of watching The Who's Roger Daltrey as the amorous pianist. Rather I have a piece that Liszt wrote for both solo piano and then also voice and piano. It is one of the three Petrarch Sonnets that he set, in this case Sonnet 123; 'I vidi in terra angelici costumi'. The solo piano works are part of his Years of Pilgrimage group composed in 1838. Here is Marc-André Hamelin playing the solo version: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Qb9qJ\_ILXlc and here are soprano Elizabeth Caballero and pianist Elaine Rinaldi in the vocal version:

Sonny and Cher? Why not? No further comments other than I was a senior in high school when this came out: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=PkmBjHwzyMw> (now some of you must be considering that I just might be suffering from severe COVID Cabin Fever; your diagnosis is obviously correct). Then there is the final time they sung the song: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=c4EaFzRVjIM>

Antonio Carlos Jobim was one of the great composers of the 20th century. He played as important a role as anyone for the popularity of bossa nova which was quickly picked up by numerous American jazz players. Here is a live film of 'Wave' with Oscar Peterson, Joe Pass and Niels-Henning Orsted Pederson:

Fleetwood Mac were great from the mid-1970s to once Lindsey Buckingham and Stevie Nicks joined the group. When they left about a decade later, the band wasn't quite the same. There were reunions of a sort but the original magic was never captured. Here is Rhiannon live from 1976:

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wgmRb3MlpHQ> Just good rock and roll!

For reflection Sunday here is a live concert from the Temple of Dendur at Metropolitan Museum of Art featuring Rhiannon Giddens with Francesco Turrisi. It's full of some very good Americana and world music and Ms. Giddens addresses some particularly thorny questions (such as performance in blackface) throughout. Enjoy this one, I did: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=lgnhso0iv9U>

Welcome to Week 25 of the Ongoing Pandemic Newsletter

Sinatra, Baryshnikov, and Tharp. What do they all have in common? A great vocalist, a great dancer, and a great choreographer, that's what! Here they are in 'One for My Baby (and One More for the Road)': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ifoOO5ZEC9g>

2020-09-08

Let's listen to some opera! Here is the great Peruvian tenor, Juan Diego Flores with the Austrian coloratura Daniela Fally in Bellini's La Sonnambula. No sleepwalking going on here, just some great bel canto singing: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=5I8SNXbpNZo> there was nothing in the notes to indicate when and where this performance took place but a Google search indicates Vienna in 2017.

2020-09-09

What better name for a daughter who you just know will be an opera singer when she grows up. Aida Garifullina was born in Kazan and has been enjoying a very nice career as a lyric soprano. Of course she is unlikely to sing Norma on stage but this is about as nice a 'Casta Diva' in concert that I've seen: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rK6GsRUI4WI> I don't think the eyelashes are real.

2020-09-10

We are going to stay with Bellini's 'Casta Diva' for little while longer; I'll conclude on Saturday with the version I believe to be the best from currently active singers. If you are not an opera fan, feel free to move one. Here is Renee Fleming from the Palace of the Tsars in St. Petersburg: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rg4L5tcxFcA>

2020-09-11

Continuing with Bellini's 'Casta Diva', the featured artist today is the great Maria Callas, the American-born Greek soprano who never met a role she couldn't sing. One of her debut roles in Italy was Brünnhilde in Wagner's Die Walküre! Her personal life was the stuff of soap opera, you really wondered what was really going on. Her prime singing years were during the 1950s and there are lots of conjecture about vocal deterioration that became prevalent during the latter part of the decade (rapid weight loss, singing too many heavy/light roles, lost confidence, early menopause; take your choice). I saw her in 1974 during the tour she was doing with Giuseppe di Stefano, and that was a total train wreck as neither singer had much to give. Here she is singing with a choir that cannot follow the conductor and she has to make things right: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=TYI8GRJGnBY> it is from a Paris concert in 1958. Tomorrow, my favorite current singer who is as good as the 'greats' who preceded her.

2020-09-12

I know that everyone was patiently waiting to find out who the star Norma of today is. It is none other than the wonderful Sondra Radvanovsky. I saw her live in the Washington Opera production of Donizetti's Anna Bolena and she was simply spectacular. Here is a concert performance of 'Casta Diva': <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=RgUINdGLPFA> and here she is on stage at the Met: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VF-NapCY8WM> and why not also from Barcelona: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=hqMBNYdpXEs>

2020-09-13

For this reflection Sunday let us have a listen to Beethoven's Piano Concerto #5, The Emperor. Here is Vladimir Ashkenazy with the London Philharmonic, conducted by Bernard Haitink in a 1974 performance.
